

This is a typical process for our clients that are interested in a LifeCentric® Design Consultation for their home and already have an existing set of blueprints.

